b.6. FOI Decision Maker shall open pending request, update status of request, attach requested information and reply via the e-FOI portal.

ARTICLE 6
Extension of Time to Respond

1. The Office may extend the fifteen (15) working days period to respond to the request if the inquiry requires more research of the records in the office, examination of voluminous records, the occurrence of bad weather or analogous cases. In no case shall the extension go beyond twenty (20) working days unless exceptional circumstances warrant a longer period.

2. Upon receipt of the Notice of Extension of Time to Respond from the concerned office, the FOI contact point shall convey the same to the requesting party.

3. All requests for follow ups shall be referred to the FOI contact point and not to the concerned Office. The requesting party may inquire of the status of his/her request via email at poropointfreeportzone@gmail.com.

ARTICLE 7
Notice of Denial

1. PPMC Office may deny the request in whole or in part depending on the following:
 - a. The information is not kept, produced or received under the original control of PPMC Office as certified by the Records Officer;
 - b. The requested information is available in PPMC website or other government offices or agencies;
 - c. the requesting party had already obtained such information within six (6) months from the date of the previous request;
 - d. The request covers disclosure of confidential information or included under the exceptions pursuant to list prepared by the Department of Justice and the Office of the Solicitor General and published by the Office of the President;
 - e. The document has been lost or destroyed and can no longer be reproduced.

2 The Office shall prepare and transmit the Notice of Denial to the contact point which shall in turn inform the decision made to the requesting party with the grounds of denial stated thereof within fifteen (15) working days from receipt of the request. Failure to notify the requesting party of the action taken on the request within the period herein provided shall be deemed a denial of the request for access to information.

3. PPMC shall motu proprio refer to the appropriate government office or agency should it be found that the said office or agency is the custodian of the document or request information. This will be indicated in the Notice of Denial which shall be furnished to the requesting party by the contact point.

ARTICLE 8
Service of Notices and Decisions

1. Notice of Extension of Period to Respond shall be transmitted at the earliest time possible through electronic mail and/or registered mail;
2. Notice of Denial and decisions of the Head of Office shall be sent to the requesting party through registered mail, private courier or electronic mail at the option of the requesting party;
3. If the request is granted, the FOI contact point shall notify the requesting party through electronic mail or text message of such approval for the latter to pay for applicable fees, if any and pick up the requested document.

ARTICLE 9
No Wrong Door Policy

In compliance with FOI-MC No. 21-05 or the Guidelines on the Referral of Requested Information, Official Record/s and Public Record/s to the Appropriate Government Agency, otherwise known as the "No Wrong Door Policy for FOI," when the requested information is not in the possession of a government agency (government agency no. 1 or GA1), but is available in another government agency (government agency no. 2 or GA2) under the Executive Branch, the request shall be immediately referred by GA1 to GA2 through the most expeditious manner but not exceeding three (3) working days from the receipt of the request. This shall be considered as the "First Referral" and a fresh period will apply. Referral to the appropriate government agency shall mean that another government office is the proper repository or custodian of the requested information or records, or have control over the said information or records.

If GA1 fails to refer the request within three (3) working days upon its receipt, the FOI Receiving Officer shall act on it within the remaining period to respond pursuant to EO No. 02, s. 2016. No fresh period shall apply. If GA1, in good faith, erroneously referred the request to GA2, the latter shall immediately notify the former as well as the requesting party, that the information requested is not available in their agency. GA2, to whom the request was referred under the First Referral may subsequently refer the request to another government agency (government agency no. 3 or GA3) under the procedure set forth in the first paragraph of this Section. This shall be considered as the "Second Referral" and another fresh period shall apply. Referrals under this Order shall only be limited to two (2) subsequent transfers of request. A written or email acknowledgement of the referral shall be made by the FRO of the government agency where it was referred. The requesting party shall be notified of the referral and must be provided with the reason or rationale thereof, and contact details of the government office where the request was referred.

Remedy in Case of Denial of the Request of Access to Information

1. The requesting party may appeal the denial of the request to access information to the Office of the PPMC President and Chief Executive Officer within fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of the Notice of Denial. The Appeal shall be in writing and shall set forth the reason why the ground cited in the Notice of Denial should be reviewed.
2. The decision of the PPMC President and Chief Executive Officer shall be final and binding to the requesting authority. Failure of the PPMC President to act on the appeal within thirty (30) working days shall be deemed a denial of the appeal and the contact point shall notify the requesting party of a Notice of Final Decision.
3. Upon exhaustion of administrative appeal remedies, the requesting party may file the appropriate judicial action in accordance with the Rules of Court.
